

PPM 100

VR PROGRAM MISSION, PURPOSE, AND VALUES

MISSION

The mission of Vocational Rehabilitation Services is to help eligible people with disabilities obtain equal opportunity and achieve greater independence and inclusion through integrated employment.

[AUTHORITY: State agency policy, per §2 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973,
as amended]

PURPOSE

The purpose of Vocational Rehabilitation Services is to provide a comprehensive, coordinated, effective, efficient, and accountable program of vocational rehabilitation services designed to empower eligible consumers with disabilities to prepare for, enter or reenter, and maintain gainful employment in integrated settings.

[AUTHORITY: State agency policy, per federal regulations, 34 CFR 361.1]

VALUES

Vocational Rehabilitation Services values:

1. the empowerment of people with disabilities to maximize employment, independence, integration, and meaningful participation in their vocational rehabilitation;

2. quality services for people with disabilities; and
3. vocational rehabilitation staff, as Vocational Rehabilitation Services' greatest resource.

[AUTHORITY: State agency policy]